10th February 2019

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

Reflection

'Luke links the call of the first disciples with the story of a miraculous catch of fish. In doing so, he introduces us not only to Peter, but also to the mission of the church.

Just as Peter's call comes out of his experience of the power of Christ at work, so too, all who wish to be followers of Jesus must first come to know that their faith is not in a creed or a code but in a person, Jesus the Son of the living God and it is he who is the source of whatever good we may do.'

Changes to the Bulletin

Fr Sang is considering continuing the bulletin in this single sheet format.

Feedback welcome.

We will email reminders to most roster volunteers each week. (Mass set up & eucharist ministers, please supply your email to : belmont@cam.org.au)

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?' Here I am, I said, 'send me!'" (Isaiah 6:8)

Every day, in little and in big ways, God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need.

The next time you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say 'Here I am, Lord.'

Pope Francis Prayer Intention for February
For the victims of human trafficking, of enforced prostitution and of violence.

Quote

'Peace has a face and a heart: the face and the heart of Jesus, the Son of God, who died on the Cross and rose precisely to give peace to each man and woman'.
Pope Francis
